

Supply Chain Executive Academy

April 1-2, 2025 | Kitzbühel, Austria
June 24-25, 2025 | Rome, Italy

The McKinsey Supply Chain Executive Academy is a two-day program dedicated to bringing Supply Chain leaders across industries together to be inspired by the latest trends in Supply Chain Management.

The program is featuring a proven mix of experts, hands-on learning, guest speakers, and group discussions. You will have plenty of opportunities to exchange ideas and experiences with your peers from leading global manufacturing and distribution companies. The event is designed specifically for heads of Supply Chain and Supply Chain executives.

We offer two complementary sessions each year. Based on your areas of interest, you can sign up for either one of these sessions or join us for both events. Our upcoming events in 2025 are:

Academy	Innovations in Supply Chain planning and logistics Kitzbühel, Austria	Leading digital Supply Chain transformations Rome, Italy
Agenda	Monday, March 31	Monday, June 23
	Optional dinner and networking opportunities starting at 8:00 p.m.
	Tuesday, April 1	Tuesday, June 24
	Full day of expert presentations, guest speakers, group discussions, and networking, followed by dinner and an evening activity
	Wednesday, April 2	Wednesday, June 25
	Full day of sessions with McKinsey experts and guest speakers, experiential learning, peer coaching, and more networking, ending at 4:00 p.m.
What to expect	Next-generation planning Advanced logistics technologies Supply chain risk and resilience Supply chain IT/tech enablement New supply chain solutions Gen AI in supply chain	Supply chain transformations Change management Communication Supply chain digitization Digital talent management Peak performance and health